2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”.....Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”.....Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”.....Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

Pastor Scott

She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . . ," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses will relate to each week's Catechism question. Memorize it in the translation of your choice as part of your arsenal to help you stand firm against the enemy.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

What else does Christ's death redeem?

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

Pastor Scott

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses will relate to each week's Catechism question. Memorize it in the translation of your choice as part of your arsenal to help you stand firm against the enemy.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

Future Worship Services

You should have received an email this week about our plans for our worship services over the next few weeks. If not please take note

- Next Sunday we will follow the same schedule we've been following with two worship services at 9 AM and 11 AM
- Starting in July, the 9 AM service will be geared toward a stricter social distancing for those with health concerns, or who simply prefer
- The second service will be at 10:45 AM and will be less strict (though we still recommend distancing)
If you have any question, please see one of the elders

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses will relate to each week's Catechism question. Memorize it in the translation of your choice as part of your arsenal to help you stand firm against the enemy.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

Pastor Scott

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”.....Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”.....Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”.....Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses will relate to each week's Catechism question. Memorize it in the translation of your choice as part of your arsenal to help you stand firm against the enemy.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

Pastor Scott

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses will relate to each week's Catechism question. Memorize it in the translation of your choice as part of your arsenal to help you stand firm against the enemy.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

Future Worship Services

You should have received an email this week about our plans for our worship services over the next few weeks. If not please take note

- Next Sunday we will follow the same schedule we've been following with two worship services at 9 AM and 11 AM
- Starting in July, the 9 AM service will be geared toward a stricter social distancing for those with health concerns, or who simply prefer
- The second service will be at 10:45 AM and will be less strict (though we still recommend distancing)
If you have any question, please see one of the elders

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

What else does Christ's death redeem?

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This week's Catechism # 25

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

Pastor Scott

She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There's a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ Catechism

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses will relate to each week's Catechism question. Memorize it in the translation of your choice as part of your arsenal to help you stand firm against the enemy.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.

■ Message - John 2:23-25 - “Shallow Faith or Saving Faith?” – Scott

■ Closing Song - “I Surrender All”Hymn 366

All to Jesus I surrender, All to Him I freely give;

I will ever love and trust Him, In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all; All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender, Humbly at His feet I bow, Worldly pleasures all forsaken, Take me, Jesus, take me now

All to Jesus I surrender, Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
May Thy Holy Spirit fill me, May I know Thy pow'r divine.

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power, Let Thy blessing fall on me.

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses will relate to each week's Catechism question. Memorize it in the translation of your choice as part of your arsenal to help you stand firm against the enemy.

2 Corinthians 5:21

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week's Catechism # 25

Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven?

Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Next week's Catechism # 26

What else does Christ's death redeem?

Christ's death is the beginning of the redemption and renewal of every part of fallen creation, as he powerfully directs all things for his own glory and creation's good.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday June 21, 2020

*The LORD is near to the brokenhearted
and saves the crushed in spirit.*

Psalm 34:18

It was just a year ago this coming Tuesday that my father suddenly passed out of this life and into the arms of Jesus. I remember the call from my sister-in-law, Leisa. She never calls me, so I knew something was wrong. "Scott, I am so sorry . . .," she began. I went numb from head to toe. For a second I felt I couldn't breathe. Dad had been sick from complications brought on by his bladder cancer, but he'd been doing much better. We just didn't see it coming. I told my wife, broke down in tears, and then called Nevin, "Could he take the service" (since it was Sunday). "Of course," he said. With that, we threw some clothes into our bags, got into the car and headed to Arkansas.

The days that followed are still a blur. I remember the pain, the numbness, the constant suppressing of tears because I wanted to be strong for Mom. It was a terrible week in so many ways. And yet it was also full of grace as I remember the messages from so many of you promising to keep us in prayer, the loving presence of my wife, and the closeness of my extended family who gathered near to share in our grief. God was present with us then. He still is now. He truly is near to the brokenhearted. And for that I praise Him!

With this first anniversary now upon us, Amy and I will be leaving soon after church today to return to Arkansas and spend the next several days with my mom. This first year has been hard for her, as it is for almost everyone who has lost a spouse, so we thought we should be with her at this time.

Please keep us all in your prayers as we travel and remember, rejoice and relive those days of sorrow. The Lord will be with us. We know that. But so will the grief. And yet it is in knowing His nearness through such times that we will find out once again just how faithful and kind He truly is.

Thank you for your understanding and prayers!

Pastor Scott

■ “One Pure and Holy Passion”

by Mark Altrogge © 1992 Dayspring Music, LLC and Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Give me one pure and holy passion Give me one magnificent obsession Give me one glorious ambition for my life To know and follow hard after You

To know and follow hard after You To grow as your disciple in your truth This world is empty, pale, and poor Compared to knowing you, my Lord Lead me on and I will run after you Lead me on and I will run after you

■ “O Worship the King”Hymn 10

O worship the King, all glorious above, And gratefully sing His wonderful love; Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

O tell of His might, O sing of His grace, Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space! His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form, And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.

Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the light, It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain, And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail, In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail: Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end, Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

He came to His own, and now we believe Enlightened our souls, the Light has set us free, He gave us the right to be children of God, No will of the flesh, but a glorious gift of Love

■ “Immortal, Invisible”Hymn 25

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, In light inaccessible hid from our eyes Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, Almighty, victorious Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light, Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might; Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small, In all life Thou livest the true life of all; We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, And wither and perish but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All praise we would render O help us to see 'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

■ “The Glory of God” Words by Joe Day, Music by The Parsons © 2003 Joe Day CCLI #801260

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth The deepest parts of the universe Are not strangers to Your hand The highest mountains the furthest of seas Forgotten and untold lands

There’s a song that is sung by the saints that have come And have gone from under the sun Those that are present before Your throne Sing endlessly The Glory of God!

Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks And honor and power and strength Be to our God forever and ever and ever Amen

What can I give unto You my Lord For You are of infinite worth The sum of my songs the cry of my heart The breath that descends to earth What cry can the deepest of sorrows bring That You do not well understand What laugh can the outburst of joy not sing Of the providence brought by Your hand

■ “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”Hymn 8

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Now to His temple draw near;

Praise Him in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, Who o’er all things so wondrously reigneth, Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth! Hast thou not seen how all thy longings have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, Who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee. Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord O let all that is in me adore Him!

All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.

Let the Amen sound from His people again: Gladly for aye we adore Him.
