■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ "Not In Me"

me rest.

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me. That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me. That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me. That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me. That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! ■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses are drawn from our weekly catechism (See "The New City Catechism")

Psalm 62:8

Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us.

This week's Catechism # 38

What is prayer?

Prayer is pouring out our hearts to God in praise, petition, confession of sin, and thanksgiving.

Next week's Catechism # 39

With what attitude should we pray?

With love, perseverance, and gratefulness; in humble submission to God's will, knowing that, for the sake of Christ, he always hears our prayers.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me. That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

■ Confession / Pastoral Prayer

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me. That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

"These inward trials I employ From self and pride to set thee free And break thy schemes of earthly joy That thou mayest seek thy all in me. That thou mayest seek thy all in me."

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ "Near the Cross" CCLI#801260

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there a precious fountain free to all, a healing stream flows from Calvary's mountain.

In the cross, in the cross, be my glory ever; till my raptured soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me; there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me; help me walk from day to day, with its shadows o'er me.

Near the cross I'll watch and wait hoping, trusting ever, till I reach the golden strand, just beyond the river

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing

Scripture! Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This year's fighter verses are drawn from our weekly catechism (See "The New City Catechism")

Psalm 62:8

Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us.

This week's Catechism # 38

What is prayer?

Prayer is pouring out our hearts to God in praise, petition, confession of sin, and thanksgiving.

Next week's Catechism # 39

With what attitude should we pray?

With love, perseverance, and gratefulness; in humble submission to God's will, knowing that, for the sake of Christ, he always hears our prayers.

A Word from Pastor Scott: Sunday September 20, 2020

...but these [things] are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

John 20:31

The purpose of the Gospel is to reveal Jesus to us that we might believe and be saved (see John 20:31 above). So as we read and study the Gospel of John together, our goal is to see Jesus; to see Him for Who He is; to understand why He came and why He alone can save! And then, upon seeing Him, to believe in Him, which means to entrust ourselves and all we are to Him for eternal life! That is our goal every time we gather in His name and open His Word.

But not only is that our goal when we gather, it should also be your goal every time you open your Bible and begin to read! Oh! How I hope you understand that! It is very easy to go through the motions of Bible reading and yet miss the point (and in the process miss the benefit and blessing and life-change that otherwise can come). Many read the Bible as they would a news magazine or a blog. They scan it for juicy tidbits, or items of interest. They read it to find help for a specific problem, or merely to have things they already believe confirmed. Worse yet, they read it to judge it's message by their own assumptions rather than submitting to its truth. But in each case they miss seeing Him! Dear one, if you miss seeing Him, you will miss the while point of the Bible. The Bible exists to show you Jesus in all His saving power and glory!

In John 5:39, as Jesus is seeking to wake the Pharisees from their religious misreading of the Bible, he says to them, "You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me, yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life." Let me urge you never to lose sight of this all-important truth: God's word is not here to tell you more about you, but to introduce you to Christ! So before you read word, ask Him to help you see Jesus more clearly! For seeing Him is what brings life!

May the Lord show Himself to us daily in His Word!

■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ "A Debtor to Mercy" by Bob Kauflin © Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

A debtor to mercy alone Of covenant mercy I sing.

I come with Your righteousness on My humble off'ring to bring

The judgments of your holy law With me can have nothing to do. My Savior's obedience and blood Hide all my transgressions from view.

The work which Your goodness began The arm of Your strength will complete Your promise is yes and amen, And never was forfeited yet.

The future or things that are now, No power below or above, Can make You Your purpose forgo, Or sever my soul from your love.

My name from the palms of Your hands Eternity will not erase Impressed on Your heart it remains, In marks of indelible grace.

Yes, I to the end will endure, Until I bow down at Your throne, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, Forever and always secure, A debtor to mercy alone

■ "He Is Exalted"

by Twila Paris © 1985 StraightWay Music; CCLI #801260

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise You! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

He is the Lord, forever His truth shall reign.

Heaven and earth rejoice in His holy name.

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high!

He is exalted, the King is exalted on high; I will praise Him! He is exalted, forever exalted and I will praise His Name!

Catechism

■ "I Asked The Lord" Words by John Newton, Music by Laura Taylor ©2004 double v music CCLI #801260

I asked the Lord that I might grow In faith and love and every grace Might more of His salvation know And seek more earnestly His face

Twas He who taught me thus to pray And He I trust has answered prayer But it has been in such a way As almost drove me to despair

I hoped that in some favored hour At once He'd answer my request And by His love's constraining power Subdue my sins and give me rest

Instead of this He made me feel The hidden evils of my heart And let the angry powers of Hell Assault my soul in every part

Yea more with His own hand He seemed intent to aggravate my woe Crossed all the fair designs I schemed, Cast out my feelings, laid me low

Lord why is this, I trembling cried Wilt Thou pursue thy worm to death? "Tis in this way" The Lord replied "I answer prayer for grace and faith"

■ "Not In Me"

by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue, No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You. O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through! My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus'

My righteousness is Jesus' life, My debt was paid by Jesus' death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.
