■ Welcome / Call to Worship

■ “Isn’t He Good”

Words and Music by Stephen Altrogge © 2004 Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI#801260

Your goodness found us in the darkness Rescued us and freed us Cleansed us from within You saved us freely You forgave us Counted us as righteous And heirs with Your own Son

Isn’t He good, Isn’t He kind Hasn’t He blessed us time after time Isn’t He good, all of our days With endless mercies and ceaseless grace O let us sing: He is good.

Your mercies meet us with the daybreak And every breath that we take Points us to Your grace Your power keeps us till the hour Every knee will bow and Worship Christ alone

■ Scripture - Ephesians 4:1-16

■ “What A Savior” (Man of Sorrows)

Words by Philip Bliss Music by Devon Kaufflin © 2007 Sovereign Grace Praise CCLI #801260

Man of Sorrows, what a name For the Son of God who came Ruined sinners to reclaim, Hallelujah Bearing shame and scoffing rude In my place condemned He stood Sealed my pardon with His blood Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Savior, You showed Your love Defeated our sin, poured out Your blood So we praise You, Lamb that was slain We offer our lives to proclaim What a Savior

Guilty, vile, and helpless we Spotless Lamb of God was
He Full atonement, can it be, Hallelujah Lifted up was He to die, “It is finished”, was His cry Now in heav’n exalted high, Hallelujah, Hallelujah.

When He comes, our glorious King All His ransomed home to bring Then anew this song we’ll sing Hallelujah, Hallelujah

■ Confession / Lord’s Supper -

Confession of Sin from 1 John 1:5-9

Pastor: This is the message we have heard from Him and proclaim to you

Congregation: That God is Light and in Him
There is no Darkness at all!

Pastor: *If we say we have fellowship with Him,
and yet walk in darkness*

Congregation: We lie and do not practice the truth

Pastor: But if we walk in the light, As He is in the Light

Congregation: We have fellowship with one another, And the blood of Jesus His Son Cleanses us from all sin.

Pastor: If we say we have no sin, We deceive ourselves

Congregation: And the truth is not in us! We are liars!

Pastor: But if we confess our sins!

Congregation: He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins
And to cleanse us from all unrighteousness

Pastor: Lord, we come confessing our sins!

Congregation: Hear our prayer, O Lord! Forgive our sins for Jesus’ sake. Amen.

■ “Not In Me” by Eric Schumacher & David L Ward © 2012 Thousand Tongues.org CCLI#801260

No list of sins I have not done, No list of virtues I pursue,
No list of those I am not like Can earn myself a place with You.
O God, be merciful to me I am a sinner through and through!
My only hope of righteousness Is not in me, but only You.

No humble dress, no fervent prayer, No lifted hands, no tearful song, No recitation of the truth Can justify a single wrong.

My righteousness is Jesus’ life, My debt was paid by Jesus’ death, My weary load was borne by Him And He alone can give me rest.

No separation from the world, No work I do, no gift I give Can cleanse my conscience, cleanse my hands; I cannot cause my soul to live. But Jesus died and rose again The power of death is overthrown! My God is merciful to me And merciful in Christ alone.

■ “Jesus, I am Resting, Resting” by David Hampton & Jean Sophia Pigott © 1998

New Spring CCLI #801260

Jesus I am resting, resting In the Joy of what Thou art
I am finding out the greatness Of Thy loving heart.
Thou hast bid me gaze upon Thee, And Thy beauty fills my soul
For by Thy transforming power Thou hast made me whole

O how great Thy loving kindness. Vaster, broader than the sea O how marvelous Thy goodness, Lavished all on me Yes, I rest in Thee, Beloved, Know what wealth of grace is Thine Know Thy certainty of promise, And have made it mine

Jesus, I am resting, resting In the joy of what Thou art

I am finding out the greatness Of Thy loving heart

Simply trusting Thee, Lord Jesus, I behold Thee as Thou art
And Thy love, so pure, so changeless, Satisfies my heart
Satisfies its deepest longings, Meets, supplies its every need
You surround me with Thy blessings; Thine is love indeed Ever lift Thy face upon me, As I work and wait for Thee
Resting 'neath Thy smile, Lord Jesus, Earth's dark shadows flee Brightness of my Father's glory, Sunshine of my Father's face
Keep me ever trusting, resting; Fill me with Thy grace

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday March 27, 2022

*“If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins
and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”*

1 John 1:9

“Why do we confess sin each week in worship?” That’s a question I hear from time to time. It feels strange to some. In the last hundred years or so Baptists have not generally included confessions in worship (though early Baptists certainly did, and most reformed churches still do). Others fear that confessing sin together each week is unnecessary. After all, I’m not guilty of every sin we confess! Or perhaps you feel it’s ‘praying by rote’ to confess a prayer in unison. But there is a gospel logic to public confession that has deep roots in the Bible and in the Reformation Faith that springs from the Bible.

Biblical worship in the reformed tradition seeks to display the Gospel every time we gather. In the call to worship, we hear God summoning us to come to him in faith. As we come, we hear God declaring Himself and His ways to us in His word and in songs that point us to His majesty, holiness, power and grace. Confession is our Gospel-driven response to this vision of God’s majesty. Just as Isaiah fell down and confessed his sin when he saw the Lord in the temple (Isa 6:1-5), so must we. (Or think of Peter’s response to Jesus in Lk 5:8).

So each week, rather than come pretending we can draw near to God on our own merits, we humble ourselves through the confession of sin to be reminded again that the gospel promises forgiveness. In this way, each week’s service becomes a “gospel dialogue” where we hear God’s Word with all its warnings and promises summoning us to repentance and faith in Jesus. We then respond to that summons by confessing our sins, hearing his word of pardon, giving thanks and praise for his mercy, and then departing to go out into the world emboldened to live by faith. As we worship this morning, pay attention to this Gospel pattern as you draw near to Christ by faith in His promises.

May the Lord give us humble, repentant hearts.

Pastor Scott

This Week's Fighter Verse: Feed Your Soul by Memorizing Scripture!
Each week's 'Fighter Verse' is meant to help you "fight the good fight" of faith. This week there are two verses you ought to have in your mind to help you on your way. If you've only got time for one, then focus on the promise of John 14:27

John 14:26

But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you

John 14:27

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.
