A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday September 25, 2022

So Where is the Rest of Our Congregation?

Good morning! If you're reading this before the worship service, you've probably noticed attendance looks a little thinner than usual. So where is the rest of our congregation? Don't worry, there hasn't been an outbreak of bubonic plague that I know of. Instead, many in our church family are taking part in our Twelfth Annual "Rockport Family Camp" at Bate's Creek Camp, Potosi, MO. We've been there since Thursday enjoying fellowship, playing games, competing in tournaments, sharing meals and getting together for times of worship and teaching from God's Word. Though I wish all could join us, I know that's not possible. So we're glad that those who couldn't come are able to gather here at Rockport. I'm also thankful that Bake Ottofy was available to bring God's word to you gathered here. I know you'll be well served.

This year's theme for camp has been "Stand Firm, Therefore" from Eph 6:14. We're considering how we must be grounded in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ so we are equipped to stand firm with faith and joy in these shifting times. Our messages have been "Stand Firm in the Truth" by Jason Woelm; "Stand Firm Against the Power of Social Media" by Aaron Sutton; "Stand Firm the Lord's Strength" by Warren Kesselring; "Stand Firm in the Joy of Holiness" by Mike Booker; "Stand Firm in Living as Citizens of Christ's Kingdom" by Scott Lee; "Stand Firm in Freedom" by Kyle Davis. All messages will, Lord willing, be made available online by the end of this week on our website or at www.SermonAudio.com/rockportbaptist.

Our hope is to be back together next Sunday, ready to share our stories of the good things God has done, praise Him for His faithfulness and hear the life-changing truth of His Word as we return to our study of John's Gospel in John 17. Until then, I pray God will be your help and hope as you trust in Him.

Looking forward to gathering in His Name next Sunday!

Pastor Scott Lee
