■ “All Creatures of Our God and King”

add words by Jonathan Baird and Ryan Baird © 2013 Sovereign Grace Worship CCLI #801260

All creatures of our God and King, Lift up your voice and with us sing O praise Him! Alleluia! Thou burning sun with golden beam, Thou silver moon with softer gleam, O praise Him! O praise Him! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Let all things their Creator bless, And worship Him in humbleness, O praise Him! Alleluia! Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son, And praise the Spirit, Three in One O praise Him! O praise Him! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

All the redeemed washed by His blood Come and rejoice in His great love O praise Him! Alleluia! Christ has defeated every sin: cast all your burdens now on Him O praise Him! O praise Him! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

He shall return in pow'r to reign; Heaven and earth will join to say O praise Him! Alleluia! Then who shall fall on bended knee? All creatures of our God and King; O praise Him, O praise Him! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Lord Prepare me to be a sanctuary, pure and holy, tried and true, with thanksgiving, I'll be a living, sanctuary for you

Lord, I praise Thee for every blessing grace and mercy old made new For you knew me from the beginning all thanksgiving to you

■ “This Is My Father's World”

This is my Father's world, and to my listening ears all nature sings, and 'round me rings the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world: I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas—
His hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world; the birds their carols raise,
the morning light, the lily white declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world: He shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass I hear Him pass,
He speaks to me everywhere.

This is my Father's world: O let me ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the Ruler yet.
This is my Father's world: the battle is not done
Jesus who died shall be satisfied and earth and heav'n be one

by Charlie Hall © 1996 Generation Music, OK CCLI License #801260

We bow our hearts We bend our knees O Spirit come make us humble We turn our eyes from evil things O Lord we cast down our idols

Give us clean hands give us pure hearts Let us not lift our souls to another Give us clean hands give us pure hearts Let us not lift our souls to another

O God let us be a generation that seeks That seeks Your face, O God of Jacob O God let us be a generation that seeks That seeks Your face, O God of Jacob

How to Join Rockport Baptist Church

We as a church are committed to the biblical teaching that church membership is for believers in Christ who voluntarily band together under the leadership of the Holy Spirit for worship, fellowship and service. We therefore require the following:

- (1) A credible profession of faith in Christ for salvation
(Romans 10:9-10)
- (2) Obedience to Christ through water baptism
(Matthew 28:18-20)
- (3) A willing commitment to the basic beliefs and practices of this church as evidenced in our Confession of Faith and Church Covenant (available upon request)

Those who are interested in seeking membership are asked to make this known to Pastor Scott and/or an Elder who will provide a copy of our Petition for Membership and explain the process.

Why Should I Be Baptized?

Baptism is commanded by Christ (Matthew 28:18-20) for all those who would follow Him as disciples. It is a picture on the outside of what Christ does on the inside of all those who come to Him by faith. As Paul declares in Romans 6:4, “We are buried with Him through baptism into death, and raised to walk in newness of life.” Baptism, therefore symbolizes our new life in Christ as believers. It is a public declaration that my old life is dead and I now belong to him. As such, it is the first act of obedience for all who would profess their faith in Him for salvation. If you have placed your faith in Christ and need to follow through with believer’s baptism, please contact Pastor Scott.

A Word from Pastor Scott

Sunday November 5, 2023

*"Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? Who shall stand in his holy place?
He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully."*

Psalm 24:3-4

Psalm 24 is one of my favorite Psalms, but also one that challenges me. It is a favorite because of the picture it presents of God's people drawing near for worship. Most scholars agree that this Psalm represents an ancient liturgy used by the people of Israel as they came up the hill to Jerusalem to worship. It is ascribed to David and was probably written to commemorate the time he, along with the Levites and a vast throng of worshipers, brought the Ark into the city of Jerusalem for the first time. You can read about that in 1 Chr 15 or 2 Sam 6.

Bringing the Ark to Jerusalem was a very important, symbolic act for David. Throughout the long years of Saul's reign, the Ark had been largely neglected, sitting at the edge of Israel in a village called Kiriath-jearim (1 Sam 7:1-2). It was not at the center of Israel's national life, just as God has not the center of Saul's life nor that of Israel during his reign. But David was a man who sought to put God first in everything. Soon after he came to the throne and secured the stability of his kingdom, he sent for the Ark (2 Sam 6). His first attempt to bring it to Jerusalem ended in failure with the death of one of his men, Uria (2 Sam 6:7) because they had failed to obey God in how they transported it. But after consulting the priests who knew God's Law, they were successful in bringing the Ark home to Jerusalem, David's new capital at the center of the united nation. Why was this important? Because by doing so, David made it clear that God, not he, was the true King of Israel ruling from Jerusalem, and that God, not David, is the One Who is worthy of all adoration, praise and obedience. As we consider worship in Psalm 24 this morning, think about God's absolute sovereignty and how your life must be lived in humble submission to Him!

May the Lord give us hearts to know, worship and obey Him!
