Words and Music by Tim Chester and Bob Kauflin © 2017 Sovereign Grace Music CCLI #801260

Your Word alone is solid ground, The mighty rock on which we build; In every line the truth is found And every page with glory filled.

Through faith alone we come to You; We have no merit we can claim. Sure that Your promises are true, We place our hope in Jesus' name.

Gloria, gloria, glory to God alone;
Gloria, gloria, glory to God alone.

In Christ alone we're justified; His righteousness is all our plea; Your law's demands are satisfied; His perfect work has set us free.

By grace alone we have been saved; All that we are has come from You. Hearts that were once by sin enslaved Now by Your pow'r have been made new.

■ "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God".....Hymn 465

A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never failing; Our helper He amid the flood Of mortal ills prevailing. For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work us woe His craft and pow'r are great, And, armed with cruel hate, On earth is not His equal.

Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing, Were not the right man on our side, The man of God's own choosing, Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He Lord Sabaoth His name, From age to age the same, And He must win the battle.

And tho this world, with devils filled, Should threaten to undo us, We will not fear, for God hath willed His truth to triumph thru us. The prince of darkness grim, We tremble not for him His rage we can endure, For lo, his doom is sure; One little word shall fell him.

That word above all earthly pow'rs, No thanks to them, abideth; The Spirit and the gifts are ours Thru Him who with us sideth. Let goods and kindred go, This mortal life also The body they may kill; God's truth abideth still: His kingdom is forever.

CONFESSION FROM THE LORD'S PRAYER

Cong: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name.

Lead: Lord we ask for mercy this week in good laws and leaders, yet our trust is not in man who is limited, sinful, and changeable. Our hope is in you.

Cong: Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Lead: Your kingdom will not be bittersweet. It will not be partial. It will be full and rich and sweet. We ask for more of this now – more of your justice protecting the innocent, more of your grace promoting the good, that we may live peaceful, quiet lives in all godliness and dignity. For this, we acknowledge our dependence and pray:

Cong: Give us this day our daily bread.

Lead: We look to you for daily bread, Yet we know that man does not live by bread alone. We live by every word that proceeds from your mouth: Every word as you sustain the universe by the word of your power. Every word as you sustain our souls by the Word of your grace. We need this grace even this morning , and so we pray:

Cong: Forgive us our debts, as we also, forgive our debtors.

Lead: We remember that we are not better than others. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed. Yet you are merciful and gracious. In Christ, we are forgiven and made clean. Freely we have received. Help us freely give.

Cong: Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

■ "And Can It Be?".....Hymn 396

And can it be that I should gain An int'rest in the Savior's blood Died He for me, who caused His pain For me, who Him to death pursued: Amazing love! How can it be, That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me Amazing love! How can it be, That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me

He left His Father's throne above So free, so infinite His grace Emptied Himself of all but love, And bled for Adam's helpless race: 'Tis mercy all, immense and free, For O my God, it found out me 'Tis mercy all, immense and free, For O my God, it found out me

Long my imprisoned spirit lay, Fast bound in sin and nature's night; Thine eye diffused a quick'ning ray I woke, the dungeon flamed with light; My chains fell off, my heart was free, I rose, went forth, and followed Thee My chains fell off, my heart was free, I rose, went forth, and followed Thee

No condemnation now I dread; Jesus, and all in Him, is mine; Alive in Him, my living Head, And clothed in righteousness divine, Bold I approach th' eternal throne, And claim the crown, through Christ my own

Bold I approach th' eternal throne, And claim the crown, through Christ my own
Amazing love! How can it be, That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me

■ "Speak, O Lord" by Keith & Kristyn Getty © 2005 Thankyou Music CCLI #801260

Speak, O Lord, as we come to You To receive the food of Your holy word Take Your truth, plant it deep in us Shape and fashion us in Your likeness That the light of Christ might be seen today In our acts of love and our deeds of faith Speak, O Lord, and fulfill in us all your purposes For Your glory

Teach us Lord full obedience Holy reverence, true humility
Test our thoughts and our attitudes In the radiance of Your purity
Cause our faith to rise Cause our eyes to see Your majestic love and authority Words of power that can never fail Let their truth prevail over unbelief

Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds Help us grasp the heights of Your plans for us Truths unchanged from the dawn of time That will echo down through eternity And by grace we'll stand on Your promises And by faith we'll walk as You walk with us Speak, O Lord, till Your church is built And the earth is filled with Your glory

■ "Christ the Sure and Steady Anchor"
Music and words by Matt Boswell and Matt Papa © 2014 Messenger Hymns CCLI #801260

Christ the sure and steady anchor, in the fury of the storm
When the winds of doubt blow through me and my sails have all been torn
In the suffering, in the sorrow, when my sinking hopes are few I will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed

Christ the sure and steady anchor, while the tempest rages on When temptation claims the battle, and it seems the night has won Deeper still then goes the anchor, though I justly stand accused I will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed

Christ the sure and steady anchor, through the floods of unbelief
Hopeless somehow, O my soul now, lift your eyes to Calvary This my ballast of assurance, see His love forever proved I will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed

Christ the sure and steady anchor, as we face the wave of death When these trials give way to glory, as we draw our final breath We will cross that great horizon, clouds behind and life secure And the calm will be the better, for the storms that we endure
Christ the shore of our salvation, ever faithful, ever true
We will hold fast to the anchor, it shall never be removed

2 Corinthians 4:5–6 (ESV)

[5] For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. [6] For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Church Office (Annex) Open House

Today, November 1st
between 1 and 3 PM

After the Fellowship lunch today, please make your way over to the Annex/Office Building. We invite everyone to see the completed work of our many saints whose labors have given us various places to meet, counsel, read, pray, and work.

We ask that no food be brought into the office building or library during this time.

A Word from Pastor Scott:

Sunday, November 1, 2026

God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
1 Corinthians 1:9

I've been thinking a lot about the faithfulness of God lately, especially in light of this extended time of transition we've been in. So much has happened this past year. After several months of prayer and discussion we made the decision to sell our old property on Telegraph and move to our new home here on Tenbrook. Many of you spent hours cleaning, improving, painting, updating, and helping in so many ways. We made the move in May and began the process of learning to live the new normal of a larger facility. Then came the decision to remodel the old rectory into a space for our offices, meetings, counseling, classes, etc. This has taken much longer, but is now essentially finished. Finally, Amy and I needed to find a new home since ours sold with the old church building. As you are aware, the Lord recently provided one.

All these things have now come together this weekend. On Friday, we had our first outreach event aimed at getting to know our new neighbors. This morning, we will worship together in an auditorium with enough room for our whole congregation and guests to meet together. After church, we will enjoy a time of fellowship in a space that permits us to eat together without taking shifts! Then, beginning at 1 pm, we will host an open house where you can come and see our newly finished Office and Meeting Annex. I'm excited to introduce it to you as a place for fellowship, support staff, meetings, classes, counseling, etc. And then, when today is done, Amy and I will get to go home to our own place provided by the faithfulness of God and our faithful church family. I think of all these things and can only say, "To God be the glory"

With much love and gratitude, Pastor Scott
